

The Dingo Register, The Daimler Fighting Vehicles Project – Part D1d
Cavalry Of The Line
The Household Cavalry Regiment In Palestine 1946-1950

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Egypt- Trans Jordan Trek

Description: Daimler armoured car F339461, named CAVALIER, prepares to leave on the trans Jordan trek
27th February 1947

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Egypt- Cairo Trans Jordan Trek

Description: Daimler armoured car is the last to leave on the trans Jordan trek
27th February 1947

The Dingo Register, The Daimler Fighting Vehicles Project – Part D1d
Cavalry Of The Line
The Household Cavalry Regiment In Palestine 1946-1950

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Trans Jordan Trek
Description: The Life Guards, A B & C squadrons on road to khassa, Palestine
February 1947

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Trans Jordan Trek
Description: Daimler scout car driver Taffy Lewis, wraps up warm for the journey.
February 1947

The Dingo Register, The Daimler Fighting Vehicles Project – Part D1d
Cavalry Of The Line
The Household Cavalry Regiment In Palestine 1946-1950

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Trans Jordan Trek

Description: crew members of Daimler armoured car F339363 named CORONET gather for some lunch and a brew up.
February 1947

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Palestine Jerusalem, Bethlehem

Description: Daimler armoured car F349532 and Dingo under the church
Circa 1947

The Dingo Register, The Daimler Fighting Vehicles Project – Part D1d
Cavalry Of The Line
The Household Cavalry Regiment In Palestine 1946-1950

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford

Location: Palestine at kilo25 Beb-el-wad

Description: Daimler scout car named CALIGULAR, Tiny Rawlins & Stan Houghton on the Jaffa road patrol with the local police force, who's officer would use the top seat.

January 1948

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford

Location: Palestine

Description: Fitters carry out minor repairs in preparation for a police patrol, the spare 19 set tuned to the local police station is carried on top of the car.

Circa 1947

The Dingo Register, The Daimler Fighting Vehicles Project – Part D1d
Cavalry Of The Line
The Household Cavalry Regiment In Palestine 1946-1950

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Palestine, khassa

Description: Daimler scout car F340-71 Manning a road block at, trooper Eric Prior is well armed.
June 1947

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Palestine Jerusalem

Description: Daimler scout car F340809 driving through crowded streets on partition day, a bottle of port is passed to driver Stan Houghton
December 1947

The Dingo Register, The Daimler Fighting Vehicles Project – Part D1d
Cavalry Of The Line
The Household Cavalry Regiment In Palestine 1946-1950

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Palestine
Description: Daimler armoured car F339347 named CRAVEN on patrol
Circa 1947

The Dingo Register, The Daimler Fighting Vehicles Project – Part D1d
Cavalry Of The Line
The Household Cavalry Regiment In Palestine 1946-1950

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Palestine

Description: Daimler scout car has just picked up a local police constable from Enab police station, who is sampling the in drivers seat!
Circa 1947

Photo Courtesy of Photographer : Lance Corporal John (Jack) Clifford
Location: Palestine

Description: Daimler armoured cars lined up on the Palestine firing ranges
Circa 1947